

Certified Chaplain Training

Register Today for our Next Training Online Classes Start: August 24, 2021

OUR CLIENTS

Those experiencing loneliness and aging Individuals and their families who are coping with their illness Recovering individuals, patients and their families Those unaffiliated with a religious institution and/or desirous of spiritual guidance Individuals and or families coping with the lost of a love one.

OUR HUMAN TOUCH

Helping our clients to cope through:
Empathic listening and interactive counseling, we will help deal with your feelings of: Loneliness, Anxiety, Fear, Anger, Spiritual Abandonment, and Loss.

Chaplain Dr. Chanda G Simmons, Certified Trainer

www.graceschoolofministry.org

Chaplaincy Training

Is a forty hours course in active listening and caring skills which trains Spiritual Care Givers in 11 specific different skills. These include: Behavior Description, Direct Expression of Feelings, Paraphrase, Life Commandments, Perception Check, Story Listening, Fogging, Neuro-Linguistics, Productive Questions, Negative Inquiry and Story Polarization Listening. This is done in a format of learning through practice in a lab environment. The course is provided through GSOM, Dr. Matthew Taylor. Cost for the 40 hour training is $680 plus $50 for cap and gown.

(Ask About Our Payment Plan)

San Diego & Orange County, California